

Response to Intervention

Improving Achievement for All Students

New Mexico Rtl State Advisory Team

Mission

To serve as an advisory body to the New Mexico Public Education Department (PED) relating to the use of the three-tier model of student intervention as the Response to Intervention (Rtl) framework for all students in New Mexico public schools.

Function

To accomplish this mission, the Advisory Team will meet to collaborate, problem solve, and provide thoughtful feedback and/or recommendations to the NMPED on existing and proposed Rtl rules, policies, procedures, and practices. It is understood that the NMPED is the governing authority and has ultimate responsibility for policy and decision-making.

Team Membership

20-30 invited members are selected by the PED. The team consists of a blend of individuals from relevant Bureaus within the PED and external stakeholders, including but not limited to, school district staff, regional education cooperative (REC) staff, institutes of higher education, parent advocacy groups, and professional education organizations.

Meetings

Tentatively, three meetings in Santa Fe per school year. Meeting dates to be determined.
